Principal's report:

Tina Frollo stated that she has settled in her new office at the elementary school and is conducting interviews for Assistants and a 1st grade teacher. Mrs. Frollo indicated that she has been working with teachers to get acquainted with where things are and get organized as you do your best work when you are organized. Mrs. Frollo discussed this year's handbook, stating there just a few changes including the new 3rd grade reading laws and restorative justice. Mrs. Frollo also announced that the teachers will be attending Professional Development classes soon. Trent Naumcheff stated that the transition to the high school went well and he will be expanding the elective opportunities with new classes and will explore semester only options. Mr. Naumcheff stated that a multi-tracking system will be developed. Mr. Naumcheff reviewed the changes and additions in the High school student and Athletic handbook.
